

Just excavated within the last 12 months and put on display this week. This glass-like figurine recovered from northern Israel is most likely the face of King Ahab, King Jehu, King Ben Hadad, King Hazael or King Ithobaal. All were contemporaries around 850 BC in this conflicting border zone.

According to The Times of Israel a figurine of a king's head found in 2017 was photographed and put on display on June 4, 2018. Recovered at ancient Israelite city of Abel Beth Maacah which was on Israel's northern border sharing borders with Aram/Syria (NE) and Phoenicia (NW). The head is definitely a king from from this area around 900-800 BC. This gives a face to 1 Kings 20 and many other recorded documents of the Old Testament concerning the conflicts and treaties on these borders.

See article in the Times of Israel HERE-->

<https://www.timesofisrael.com/rare-sculpted-head-of-mystery-biblical-king-found-in-northern-israel/>

